FOREWORD

(To our Uncles, Aunts, and Cousins
Known and Unknown)

Our Thanks to All

1809912

We want to thank all of you who have spent time and effort in helping to supply the information in this family record. We appreciated your individual write-ups and news items which help to make this history interesting. We wanted it to include enough so that after reading it you will feel at least in a measure, acquainted with your cousins whom you may not personally know.

We have tried to include all that was sent in. However, we did not list the occupation of homemaking for the wives, but would say here that this is the main occupation of most of them and that is as it should be. We do not mean to slight the value of this important work by not mentioning it in the 115 cases where it would likely apply.

Several persons deserve special mention for the extra amount of time they have spent in helping us to collect data:

Sallie Hartman Brenneman, Walter Steele and his daughter Hazel, Tracey Thompson, Herman Diehl, and Marvin Hartman (Mt. Crawford, Va.).

It has been difficult to get all the desired information, and you will find some pages quite blank. We hope that it will be possible to add to the information recorded here.

Where there was a conflict in dates or names between tombstones and written records (old histories, etc.), we have considered the tombstone record correct. Sometimes it was necessary for us to decide on birth dates because only date of death and exact age were given. We realize that in a few cases of the older ones the dates given here might be wrong by at least a day. We hope, however, that this is not the case and that you can feel that what is recorded here is correct.

How to Use the History

As you will readily notice by glancing at the contents, there are five main sections in this history. Section I contains all the information we have found on Samuel Hartman. Following that there is one section for each of his four children who grew to maturity. Further, you will notice that there is a page included for each family represented. Children's pages immediately follow their parents. As this book is loose-leaf, we will be adding pages with each new marriage.

Each page contains the family number at the top to help you recognize that family's position on the family tree (see further explanation below). The page number at the bottom contains a Roman numeral, indicating section of the history, plus an Arabic number indicating the page in the section. For example, page II-15 means 15th page in the 2nd section.

Generations are easily distinguished by color. First and second generations are printed on white paper; third generation on peach; fourth generation on green; and fifth generation on buff. This means that in any one section all the peach colored sheets will be brothers and sisters, all green sheets will represent the first cousins, etc.

Family numbers may be interpreted as follows: Samuel Hartman, with whom this history begins, is No. 1. His first child, Josiah, is No. 11 (first child of first man). Josiah's first child Annie is 111 (first child of first child of first man). You see that this adds one digit for each generation. As a further example consider No. 1492. This 4-digit number means fourth generation (on green paper)--2nd child of the 9th child of the 4th child of No. 1. (Read numbers from right to left to trace the relation back to No. 1).

There will be no families beginning with 12 because the second child of Samuel Hartman died young. His third child, Mary, is No. 13; fourth child, John, 14; fifth child, Perry, 15. In several cases it was necessary to record numbers as follows 15(10). Consider both digits in parentheses as one. This then is the same as a 3-digit number, meaning 10th child of fifth child of No. 1. No. 15(10)1 would mean fourth generation, indicating first child of the tenth child, etc.

What you should do each year . . .

Because this history is loose-leaf with a page for each family, we would like to add new information and send it to you each year--additional pages for new families and items of interest for you to write or paste in at the right places.

We would like to send out the additions about this time of year--June 1. Before that date -- and we would strongly urge at any time during the year -- send all information to this address:

Sanford and Merna Shank
Park View
Harrisonburg, Virginia

Include the following kinds of information:

Marriages--(give complete information--
dates, full names, etc.
such as these pages contain)

Births

Deaths

Changes of address

Changes of occupation

Any other significant or interesting information

If you discover mistakes in any part of this history in dates, spelling of names, or other information, please let us know. We have tried to record everything as it was sent in, but we realize that it is almost impossible to have such a record 100 per cent accurate. Perhaps with your help this history can be nearly so.

If you can supply any information on others, especially those where only a little is known, please send us that to be included with next year's additions. Perhaps some of you could add to the "Memories of Samuel Hartman" with write-ups similar to the one already printed.

If, after reading through the history, you wish that your own page were different or contained more about you that would help others know you better, don't hesitate to send us that, too. No one can send in information about you and your family so well as you yourself.

We trust that this family record will be as interesting and helpful to you as you had hoped it would be when you ordered your copy.

SAMUEL HARTMAN

SAMUEL HARTMAN

Magdalene Good Hartman

ABRAHAM HARTMAN FAMILY
(Samuel Hartman's Father)

Abraham Hartman married Susanna Long on November 10, 1810. In the book Life of Peter S. Hartman we read that in 1862 Abraham was thrown off his horse and killed. He "had been knocked from his horse by the limb of a tree, and, in falling, he had caught his foot in the stirrup of the saddle. He was dragged to death, and what made it worse, he was drunk at the time. He was found dead under a pine tree."

In the Weavers cemetery there is a tombstone reading: Susannah, wife of Abraham Hartman died Nov. 4, 1878, aged 86 yrs. 10 mos. 10 das. Perhaps this is the same Susannah.

Abraham and Susanna had 11 children:

1. David Hartman, b. April 12, 1812.
2. Polly Hartman, b. March 14, 1814.
3. Elizabeth Hartman, b. June 31, 1816.
4. Sarah Hartman, b. March 27, 1819.
5. Barbara Hartman, b. Sept. 9, 1821.

10. Peter Hartman, b. Oct. 12, 1834.

The following information was found about some of Samuel Hartman's brothers and sisters.

David died May 2, 1881, aged 69 yrs, 20 das. He is buried in the Weavers cemetery. His wife was Elizabeth _____, born Oct. 11, 1815, died Oct. 11, 1888, aged 73 yrs. (It appears that this David Hartman was the father of Peter S. "Uncle Pete" Hartman.)

Sarah was married to a Diehl. She died June 21, 1890. Buried in the Mill Creek Church of the Brethren cemetery. She had 8 children: Amos, Elijah, Joe, Jerry, Enoch (died young), Mary, Melinda, and Jacob (Herman Diehl's father).

Christian died Aug. 19, 1893, aged 69 yrs. 6 mos. 16 das. Buried at Mill Creek. His wife was Elizabeth _____, b. Sept. 27, 1816, d. Feb. 13, 1887, aged 70 yrs. 4 mos. 16 das. Buried at Mill Creek. They had 3 sons: George, David, and Abraham "Abe." (This Abe Hartman had a son George who married Mahala Good. They are now living near Waynesboro, Virginia.)

Melvina lived in Oregon and lived to be around a hundred years old.

Peter's wife was Elizabeth _____. He is buried in the Shady Grove cemetery. He had 9 children: Martha, Sarah, Elizabeth Ann, Mary Margaret, Lucy, Ward, John, Bertha, and Marvin. (Marvin is 79 years of age. He gave us the names of his father's brothers and sisters, but does not remember much about them. His present address is Mt. Crawford, Virginia.)

MEMORIES OF SAMUEL HARTMAN

From George Thompson, Elmwood, Illinois:

"As I am to write in memory of a grand man we called 'Grandpap' when we 2nd generation were living near him, now a few things I remember. He learned the cooper trade, when a young man, (making barrels). When the Civil War came, he didn't believe in wars so he hired a substitute for $500. (That was the law then for an honest objector.) Now objectors are placed in other places. I write this to clear what 3rd or 4th generation may think of an honest Christian man.

More at that time-- He and Grandmother with my mother and Uncle Joe lived at the stone spring, or the Burkholder Springs, as we knew it then. And one day Grandpap was sitting on a rail fence when the soldiers came by. One said he would shoot him for not telling where he hid things. Afterwards someone asked him why he didn't get off the fence. He said he did the best he knew under the circumstances. I often worked for him when a boy. He had me drop potatoes peeling side up. Then I dropped for Mr. Kaylor, and he had me put them upside down, and I told him how Grandpap had me do and he said I wasn't working for Sam Hartman! Afterwards in Illinois I planted them both ways or any way and they grew. Ha!"
